

FROM THE RABBI

Esther Hugenholtz

I never thought I'd say this as a congregational rabbi who attends lots of meetings, but I wholeheartedly enjoyed our Congregational Meeting. It was well attended, thoughtful and engaging and, perhaps less expected: moving. It brainstorming sessions and discussions about the Jewish Future and we even had fun with an Escape Room exercise organized by our unparalleled Janelle Jaskolka. The honor was entirely mine when I could bless our outgoing leaders for how well they
